

Dan and Catherine are serving in Central Asia to help train and equip the next generation of church leaders. They serve through WO-ITEN, building out a network of church-based training centers in a number of regional hubs.

View their recent newsletter : The Kazakhstan Connection

